Dear choral friend,

Getting to write my Sunrise Mass was a dream come true, as I've always wanted to do a mass, and this particular commission in 2007 gave me the opportunity to write a large work for choir and string orchestra. I wanted the musical development of the work to evolve from the most transparent and spacey, to something completely earthy; from nebulous and pristine to more emotional and dramatic, and eventually solid and grounded – also as a metaphor for human development from child to adult, or as a spiritual journey.

I am delighted that the Choral Celebration Network Foundation will be performing my mass, in collaboration with the Cape Town Philharmonic Orchestra and the University of Western Cape Combined Arts Choir, and that they will engage more choirs and singers to be part of the experience.

I'm unfortunately not able to be there in person to be part of this initiative, but will have a chance to interact with you all in a Skype Q&A session from New York! Alta Mare will ensure that I will have access to your performance footage as well.

As composer of the Sunrise Mass and on behalf of Alta Mare and the Choral Celebration Network Foundation, I warmly recommend this event to all interested choirs.

I wish you joy, and a truly memorable experience.

Warmest regards

Ola Gjeilo

Cape Town is the oldest city in South Africa and known as the ‘Mother City. This imposing port city is perched between the ocean and Table Mountain with a national park at its heart. To say there is no place like Cape Town in the world is an understatement.

The best time of year to visit is summer and February forms the sweet spot between the local tourism summer holiday season and the start of the rainy season. This vibrant city beneath the imposing Table Mountain offers something to everyone. This event offers a unique experience where we celebrate the beauty of choral music while giving you a reason to visit this enticing city. We can’t wait to share our passion for choral music and the sights, sounds and great wine of Cape Town with you!
